ALTUS.

Fare - well dis - daine - full, since no love, no love, no, love, no, no, love a vayles
A
mee, O sharp and bit - ter an - guish, what dis - cord griefe as - sayles mee? what dis - cord griefe as - sails mee? Needs must I part, a - las, (O) yet part - ing makes mee lan - guish. But yet it pleas-eth thee, Ther-fore un-kind hart, now, a diew, ther-fore now a diew there is no re - me - die. O come a - gaine, O re - turne thee; O come a - gaine: No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, more (false Love) no thy flames shall burne mee. No, no, no, bee still con - tent
B
C thee? When I am gone par haps then par haps; then par-haps, thou wilt re - pent thee, thou wilt re-pent thee, I thou wilt re-pent thee, re pent thee. No; no, no, bee still, con - tent thee, when I am gone par haps, then par haps then par-haps, thou wilt re - pent thee? thou wilt re-pent thee, I thou wilt re-pent thee, repent re-pent thee, I repent, I re-pent thee.
D

74