CANTUS.

John Dowland

1. Where Sinne sore wounding, dai-ly doth op-press me,
2. Though Sinne of-fend-ing dai-ly doth tor-ment me,
3. The wound Sinne gave me was of Death as-sur-ed,
4. Sinnes stripe is heal-ed and his sting a-ba-ted,

There Grace a-bound-ing, Grace a-bound-ing, free-ly, free-ly doth re-Yet Grace a-mend-ing, Grace a-mend-ing, since I, since I doe re-Did not Grace save mee, Grace save mee, where-by, where-by it is Deaths mouth is seal-ed, mouth is seal-ed, and the, and the Grave adresse mee: So that re-sound-ing still I shall con-fesse thee, Fa-ther, pent mee, At my lives end-ing will I hope pre-sent mee Cleare to, cur-ed: So thou wilt have mee to thy love in-ur-red free, ma-ted, Thy Love re-veal-ed, and they Grace re-lat-ed Gives me,

Fa-ther of mer-cy, Fa-ther of mer-cy, mer-cy, Fa-ther of mer-cy.
 cleare to thy mer-cy, Cleare to thy mer-cy, mer-cy, Cleare to thy mer-cy.
