 3. And from the dead - ly plague and care where - of thou art a - fraid:

7. Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be;
Ten thousand more at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
8. But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thy eyes shall well regard:
According unto their desert
the wicked have reward.
9. For why? O Lord, I only rest
and fix my hope on thee
In the Most High I put my trust,
my sure defense is he.
10. No evil shalt thou need to fear,
with thee it shall go well;
No plague shall ever once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.
11. For why? unto his angels all with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy ways they shall
preserve and prosper thee;
12. And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon,
Lest that thy foot should happen for
to dash against, a stone.
13. Upon the lion thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long;
On the young lions tread also,
with dragons stout and strong:
14. Because he sets his love on me,
I'll save him by my might,
And him advance, because that he doth know my Name aright.
15. When he for help to me doth cry,
an answer I will give/
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.
16. With length of days and years I will
him fully satisfy,
And also my salvation still show him assuredly.
